This meeting was conducted via Zoom and broadcasted live on Facebook as well as recorded. Mayor Putman called the hearing to order at 6:45pm. The pledge was recited.

Mayor Putman stated the purpose of the hearing is to discuss allowing dogs in Pasquarelle Park. He stated that the law had previously been amended to prohibit dogs.

Public Comment

Andrew Lu commented that he thought the law had been in place because of possible dog waste becoming a problem.

The Mayor and Trustee Coldrick questioned why this park would be treated differently than any other park. Trustees Bergin, Parker, and Block had no issue with allowing dogs to use Pasquarelle Park. Maya McDonough asked where the future dog park was going and asked whether it would be fenced and why dog waste was an issue at all.
